

TRUSTEES' MEETING

PLAN TO TAKE OVER PROPERTY FROM EDISON CO. IN TROPICO DISTRICT AT ONCE

The Board assembled at 8:20 p. m., February 27, 1919, all members present except Trustee Jackson and Trustee Muhleman. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

The matter of the application of the Los Angeles and Santa Paula Daily Express Company and also of C. A. Beason & Son for permit to run motor cars on regular trips through the City of Glendale was taken up. Neither of the petitioners being present action was, on motion of Trustee Shaw, postponed for two weeks, March 13, 1919, at 8 o'clock.

An application was received from M. J. McGrew for permit to carry on auto passenger service in the City of Glendale, which being approved by the City Manager was, on motion of Trustee Henry, granted.

A communication was received from Trustee R. M. Jackson requesting that on account of his illness he be granted leave of absence until April 1, 1919. On motion of Trustee Henry, application was granted.

Application was received from H. S. Munger, pastor of Central Avenue Methodist Church, for a permit to remove a pepper tree from the park way, corner of Central and Palmer avenue. The matter was, on motion of Trustee Shaw, referred to the City Manager with power to act.

City Manager submitted a copy of a letter which he had sent to the President of the Board of Trustees of the City of Burbank in reference to the expense incurred by the City of Glendale in its successful efforts to prevent the establishment of toll rates by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, and in reply to the same presented a letter which was read from the City Clerk of the City of Burbank, a portion of which is as follows: "The Board requested that I advise you, that in its opinion both Burbank and Lankershim should help bear a portion of the expense incurred through the late controversy with the Telephone Company, and it was the consensus of opinion of the members present, that twenty-five per cent. of the expense would be a fair division for this district to bear."

NEWS OF LAMPSON FAMILY

Mr. R. D. Lampson, of Corona, relative of R. A. Blackburn, of North Cedar street, has been spending a few days with the Blackburns. He formerly lived in Glendale and has quite a large circle of friends here. His son, Harold, who was graduated from the Glendale Grammar Schools, is a sergeant in France. He was in the Argonne Drive and was out in a hole for nine days but was finally rescued. He hopes to be home in June. He has been serving as a non-commissioned gas battalion officer, his special business being to instruct the men in regard to the gas and use of the masks.

CHANGE OF LOCATION

BRITISH AMBULANCE SOCIETY MOVES ITS HEADQUARTERS

The Glendale Branch of the British Ambulance Society has moved its headquarters, Broadway, near the Bank of Glendale, to rooms three doors farther east.

The Branch has received the following letter of appreciation:

"Los Angeles, Cal.,
"Feb. 26, 1919.

"British Ambulance Society,
"Glendale, Cal.

"Dear Friends:—Mrs. Rodman has asked me to express to you her appreciation of your splendid contribution to the cause of Belgium.

"It was my personal pleasure to prepare for shipment the garments sent to us and if all goes well they will start on their long journey this morning. When we are asked what is most needed, one of the things we always say is 'sleeping garments,' people generally wear their sleeping garments until there is little left worth shipping across the seas while outer garments as well as many undergarments are discarded, many times when they are still wearable. We are always grateful for these articles especially, but when one considers 3,000,000 destitute people it is rather hard to comprehend the vast quantity of garments of all sorts that are required to keep them decently covered.

"Thanking you in the name of the Belgians, I am,

"Very truly yours,
"CARRIE S. GREENE."

DEARTH OF HOUSES WILL FORCE BUYING AND BUILDING

C. H. Henry is quite enthusiastic about the present favorable conditions in the realty market in Glendale. He has made five or six sales of houses and lots in the past six weeks and declares the dearth of houses is going to force the many seeking residence in this city to buy lots and build. Among the transactions made through his instrumentality was the sale of the Sam Harris property on Glendale at the terminus of Park avenue to Mr. Charles D. Moore, of the High School.

The home of Adelbert N. Allis of 715 East Acacia has been sold by Mr. Henry to a Mr. Suddenden, of Yuma, Arizona, who has come here within the last few days.

POSTAL MATTERS

DR. HARROWER MAKES SOME TIMELY SUGGESTIONS TO PATRONS

Below we publish suggestions by Dr. Harrower to patrons of the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles postoffice. The letter is self-explanatory: Editor Evening News:—

I shall be glad to have you give space to the subjoined remarks in regard to postal matters. You remember that yesterday Mr. Harrington Brown, or his assistants, brought out two points which I confess were very well taken and regarding which I believe that citizens of Glendale should be informed and invited to co-operate to the very utmost. It is not fair to kick unless we are doing our own part fully. While delinquencies on our part do not explain all the deficiencies of service that were outlined to the visiting postal officers, it is indeed right that their suggestions be published abroad and heeded.

First about the numerous address changes resulting from the action of the City Trustees in changing the numbering system in Glendale. It seems that less than half of the citizens here notified the postoffice of their proper addresses, as requested. This was the least we could have done. Every card should have been returned fully filled out. If the postoffice does not have our correct addresses, we should see that they have them—at once. If mail, and especially magazines, etc., is coming to us

MISS MIDCALF RETURNS

COMPLETELY RESTORED TO HEALTH, WILL RESUME HER SCHOOL WORK MONDAY

Mrs. Haskell of Los Angeles, sister of Miss Clara Midcalf, reports that the teacher last named is now sufficiently recovered to resume her duties at the Intermediate School next Monday. This week she is the guest of Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Kenneth Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. H. L. Webb, who has recently moved from Los Angeles to Glendale and purchased a home at 240 North Louise street.

The sisters have recently received from their brother, Private Holman Midcalf, who is in service in France, three helmets, the regulation steel helmet, a Pershing Guard Cavalry helmet, and a regular officers' helmet. Private Midcalf, who is with the Rainbow Division, is still on the Rhine, but hopes to be sent home in April. He has recently visited Cologne and several other Rhine cities of which he has written most interesting accounts.

HONORING DR. AND MRS. P. L. POWELL

P. L. Powell, D. D., and Mrs. Powell, were guests of honor at a four-course dinner given by Prof. George U. Moyse Thursday evening at his home on Harvard street. Dr. Powell, who is Professor of Homiletics at Colgate University, New York, gave the address at the commencement exercises at Glendale Union High School the same evening. Pink Cherokee roses beautifully decorated the dining room and reception parlors for the event.

Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Powell, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Professor Moyse, his daughters, Doris and Laura, his son, Hollis, and Mrs. Rogers. Following the dinner the party adjourned to the High School auditorium.

The President's closest advisers today declared that there is a growing disposition among the people to support the league of nations, and the White House was optimistic as to the attitude of the country.

TAFT TO SPEAK WITH WILSON IN N. Y.

HE DECLARES HIS DESIRE TO PROVE THAT LEAGUE OF NATIONS IS NOT A PARTISAN ISSUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, Feb. 28.—Ex-President Taft today wired his acceptance of an invitation to speak with President Wilson on the league of nations at the Metropolitan Opera House Tuesday night.

Taft in his telegram emphasized that it was his desire to make it clear that the league of nations is not a partisan issue.

CONVENTION OF PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS

WILL BE HELD IN CHICAGO OR WASHINGTON TO SELECT PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FOR 1920

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Senator Kenyon of Iowa today announced that the Progressive Republicans will meet in a few days, either in Washington or in Chicago, to consider whom they will support for the presidency in 1920. The House and Senate Progressives, with some party leaders not in Congress, will attend the meeting.

The league of nations also will be discussed. Political gossip names Senator Borah and Hiram Johnson of California as regular Republican presidential possibilities. Both are members of the Progressive group.

Senator Kenyon declared that the meeting will disprove the charge that jealousy of each other exists in the Progressive ranks.

ISOLATED AT WEIMAR

ONLY COMMUNICATION WITH GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS BY MEANS OF AIRPLANES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, Feb. 28.—The German government is virtually isolated at Weimar, the only communication with it being via airplane.

MEXICO TO HAVE HEARING IN WASHINGTON

PRESIDENT CARRANZA TO NAME SPOKESMAN TO SHOW ACCOMPLISHMENTS SINCE OVERTHROW OF DIAZ

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

The amount mentioned is based on the amount the state expends.

DECLARES LEAGUE CONSTITUTION AMBIGUOUS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Senator Lodge, in discussing the league of nations on the floor of the Senate today, declared that the league's constitution discards the doctrine laid down by George Washington and adopts the doctrines of Trotsky. He said the criticism does not apply to all plans for a league of nations, however. Lodge declared there is hardly a single clear-cut clause in the constitution; that already differences of opinion as to meanings have become evident, and within a year the nations will be quarreling over the application of the constitutional provisions.

ITALY SUPPORTS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Premier Orlando of Italy today cabled President Wilson, pledging Italy's support for the league of nations.

C. W. GOMMEL SUFFERS FROM PAINTER-HIGHWAYMEN

C. W. Gommel, a painter contractor, who resides at 112 East Elk avenue, has met with an irritating loss. About $25 worth of paint and all his tools were stolen from a house in Hollywood on which he had a contract. It is his impression that thefts of this kind, which are becoming quite numerous, are the work of tourist journeymen who came to the coast for an outing and get their spending money while here by taking jobs at cut prices—way below what the local painters can afford, and then stealing the paint with which to execute them. They are, in other words, painter-highwaymen, and Mr. Gommel is warning his fellows in the business.

CLOTHING DRIVE

USED GARMENTS WILL BE COLLECTED LAST WEEK IN MARCH FOR EUROPEAN NEEDS

Officials of the Glendale Chapter of the Red Cross are seeking publicity for the following telegram from Pacific Division headquarters in San Francisco:

San Francisco,
Feb. 24, 1919.

National headquarters announces a huge drive for used clothing, shoes, blankets, etc., March 24th to 30th, the articles to be collected and distributed by the Red Cross to materially relieve the sufferers of all European countries except the Central Powers. All possible help will be given and the co-operation of all local organizations should be secured. This is a great opportunity for the Red Cross to show efficiency and responsiveness to the call of suffering humanity. Every chapter in the United States will be given a quota. Wire immediately that you will put this drive on with the utmost energy, giving the name of the chairman of the drive committee. Full instructions will follow.

JOHN B. MILLER,
Mgr., Pacific Division.

Mrs. W. W. Worley has been made chairman of this drive for used clothing which will be on the last week in March.

Mrs. G. K. Barnes, of 1311 North Brand boulevard, is now chairman of the revived knitting department, which is being pushed with zeal.

Now that so much work is being demanded, active members of the Red Cross are requested to again register for service in the sewing and knitting departments. The most urgent need will soon be over, but if the workers will come now and each do her part, these quotas can be executed without overwork on the part of any member and the credit of the chapter be maintained.

NEW FIRE ENGINE

COMES IN BRIDAL ARRAY AND WILL BE OFFICIALLY TESTED BEFORE ACCEPTANCE

Monday Glendale's beautiful new fire engine reached this city, looking like a bride in her glistening white enamel paint and gilt trimmings. She was almost as warmly welcomed as a bride at the Fire House on Broadway where she is greatly admired and will be tenderly cared for.

The engine was built by the American La France Company of Elmira, New York, and purchased through its Los Angeles Agency. It will not be accepted until it has been officially tested and that test cannot take place until the mechanical expert of the manufacturers has been here and inspected and tested the engine for his company.

The original engine to which a Junior Pump was added not long ago has a capacity of 300 gallons per minute. The capacity of the new engine is 1000 gallons per minute and its cost is $10,250. With this new equipment the Fire Department should be able to give the city adequate protection even though two fires break out at the same moment in different parts of the city.

The official test will be made under the direction of the Board of Fire Underwriters of Los Angeles. It will take place in Glendale and be properly advertised so that the public may participate.

Another public demonstration of the fire protection afforded by the department is planned to take place on Brand boulevard in the near future when all three engines owned by the city will be operated at once and a photograph will be taken of the streams they throw, as a demonstration of their efficiency.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

That is what it seems like when miscellaneous collections of junk, old bottles, odds and ends of metal, etc., are assembled and sold for $25. That happened this week and Mr. Rowley, who has charge of collecting and selling feels delighted to have them out of the way and converted into such a neat sum for the treasury of the local Red Cross on which so many calls are being made for the Home Service Work for soldiers and sailors and their families. No money will come in to the chapter from membership fees until next January, so this important obligation must now be met from the returns of the salvage department. Home service takes care of the wife, child or mother. The department is often called upon to bring the separated together when perhaps the soldier husband is discharged at an eastern camp when the wife is here. The case has to be investigated by Mrs. Brown, the chairman, to determine who shall be transported and where they shall be sent, but it takes money either way. While it is a loan which may all come back to the chapter, the call is for an immediate outlay in cash.

It all comes back to the admonition: "Save all your junk, papers, bottles, metals, clothing, shoes, etc., and notify the Red Cross to send the salvage man for them."

MID-YEAR GRADUATES

BIG AUDIENCE ENJOYS COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF GLENDALE U. H. STUDENTS

Glendale's keen interest in her schools and in the graduation of students was again demonstrated Thursday evening when a big audience filled the auditorium of the High School to participate in the graduation of the nine members of the mid-winter class of 1919.

A prominent part in the exercises was taken by the High School Orchestra under direction of Mrs. Dora Gibson, head of the music department. Its opening number was the "Star-Spangled Banner." Several excellent numbers were performed, including a tuneful medley of patriotic and popular airs, and the processional and recessional marches for the entrance and exit of the class.

A beautiful program of vocal music was furnished by Miss Alice Crawford Fawcett of Pasadena, a talented pupil of Madame Catherine Shank of this city, who greatly pleased the audience with the lyrics, "The Wind's in the South" by Scott, "The Wood Pigeon" and "The Wren" by Liza Lehman, "Summer" by Chaminade, and "Her Words Come to Me Like a Summer Sign" by Amy Woodford Sinden.

THE BLUE POKE BONNET

Great wars are prone to engender great religious revivals. Men quivering in an agony of soul turn their faces toward eternity. They strain their eyes toward the farther shore of the Great River which their loved ones have crossed.

What the aftermath of this war will be for the churches is problematical. But one great religious organization—the Salvation Army—will emerge from it flying the bright banner of victory. A multitude of men and women who once looked askance at this body of laborers in the Lord's vineyard have faced about.

These Salvationists have shown that red blood and religion are not antithetical and that a man is no milksop because he prays. They have proved that worshipping the Prince of Peace is not a renunciation of a God of Battles. They have endeared themselves, by their courage and devotion, to hundreds of thousands of soldiers who were once shy of their hymns and prayers until heard amid the roar of guns.

When these boys come home and are approached by a lassie in a blue poke bonnet, they will suddenly recall the taste of those doughnuts and the coffee along the banks of the Marne, and they will dig up.

We stay-at-homes can do the same today.—Chicago Evening Post.

NEED OF TWO-OCEAN NAVY

The Atlantic fleet of the United States navy, in its announced reorganization, is an inspiring spectacle. Its dreadnought squadron of fifteen giant fighters—with a sixteenth soon to be added—supported by twenty-four of the older battleships of the navy ranging from Spanish war veterans to the big-gun types of the Michigan and South Carolina, constitute a line of defense that would cause any foe to hesitate. Three divisions of cruisers are supplemented by thirty-three divisions of smaller craft, including the destroyers which have made such a commendable record of performance during the war, and withal there are the mine-layers, the supply, hospital, munition and fuel ships and the submarines—in the aggregate a complete fighting fleet.

A glance at the Pacific fleet is not less interesting nor less important. The old battleship Oregon heads the list, followed by the armored cruisers Tacoma and Denver, and the protected cruiser Cleveland and the Minneapolis, and a fleet of gunboats that don't count. In Asiatic waters are three old cruisers, twelve gunboats and a fleet of submarines ready for the discard and mothered by the ancient monitor. The contrast is obvious, but its significance deserves to be considered.

How long is the Pacific coast likely to be satisfied with its lack of protection, and will it continue to accept the discards from the Atlantic fleet, or will it clamor for the new navy as its own?

If you want the new Glendale City Directory, order it this week for $3.00. Price beginning next week will be $4.00.

Work on the Broadway street improvement is progressing very satisfactorily under favorable weather conditions. The contractor is pushing the work and making an excellent showing.

The War Comforts Committee of the Glendale Church of Christ, Scientist, is completing a quota of garments for war relief and will close its work and surrender its headquarters in the near future.

Mrs. W. F. Fowler and baby daughter of Riverside are guests this week of Mrs. Fowler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Quinch of 718 E. Harvard. Mr. Fowler will spend the week end here and return with his family.

Mrs. Johanna E. Edwards has just returned from a week's visit with her daughter, and is now nicely located at 137 S. Pacific avenue, where she is making a home for her son, Sergt. Clarence Edwards, lately returned from overseas. Sergt. Edwards expects to go north in the near future.

Gale Henry, who has her own producing company of moving picture films, is meeting with great success. She is the daughter of C. H. Henry, of 700 South Brand boulevard, one of Glendale's City Trustees. Her studio is in Hollywood. Her work is confined to comedies which are handled by the Bullseye Company of New York City. She received a telegram from the company this week telling her they were selling as fast as received. She has just completed one and is starting in on another.

I. F. Lawshe, brother of A. L. Lawshe, of this city, Mrs. I. F. Lawshe and Mrs. Mary Wampler, mother of Mrs. A. L. Lawshe, who have been guests in Glendale for a number of weeks in which they have toured Southern California with their relatives, leave Sunday evening for their home in Indiana. The Lawshe family have not found California quite the heaven of warmth and sunshine they were looking for, but expect it will loom up bright and beautiful in retrospect and by comparison when they get to Indiana and that it will lead to another visit and longer stay.

PRVT. HOMER BULLARD IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bullard of 455 Salem street have been made very happy by the receipt of a telegram announcing the arrival of Private Homer Bullard in New York Wednesday. He is now in Camp Dix, and they are awaiting further news of his movements. He was in the 164th Infantry with the 41st Division. In spite of the fact that he was overseas for a year, he did not get into action at the front, which was, of course, a disappointment to him.

A CALL TO SERVICE

Last week, at a conference held in Los Angeles, Mrs. A. L. McLeish, chairman of Chapter Production for the Pacific Division, spoke of the great need abroad for garments, both knitted and sewed.

The Red Cross chapters are urged to continue the splendid work they have been doing as long as the National officials see the need. It is expected that by June 1st, enough garments will be made so that the work in these departments will end then.

Knowing the fine work that always has been done in the Glendale chapter we hope all workers will respond and enable us to maintain our good reputation.

All societies and organizations are invited to assist.

MRS. H. E. BARTLETT,
 Chairman.

REORGANIZATION OF PUBLIC SERVICE DEPT.

Under an ordinance adopted by the City Trustees Thursday evening and subsequent resolutions adopted, a reorganization of the Public Service Department was effected under which Mr. Lynch was made engineer of the department; Mr. Phillips its auditor, and Mr. Dietrich its superintendent. Full details will be published shortly.

PLAYS NO FAVORITES

That the Glendale Evening News plays no favorites in advertising and brings returns regardless of how unusual the character of the call may be, the case of Mrs. Rand of East Chestnut street is cited. Mrs. Rand desired an aviary and inserted an advertisement to that effect in two issues of the Evening News. The third day she gave instructions for its discontinuance because she had secured what she wanted.

a beautiful framed photograph to be hung upon the walls of the school. It was accepted by Professor Moyse who said it would always be a link by which the school could establish its claims to the young people going out to do fine things for the world.

There was tremendous interest in the dramatized class prophecy written by Erma Patterson and Don Wieman, in which all members of the class were assigned characters at a supposed reunion of the class ten years hence. Winifred Bacon made her appearance as a successful actress, Lois A. Percey as a professional pianist, Audrey Hall as head of a music department in a high school, Sybil Jangocian as a missionary, Hubert Woods as an inventor, Hubert Toll as a traffic cop, Donald Wieman as a tramp and bum, Erma Patterson as a press reporter, Iva Nine as a housekeeper. There were several school hits in the skit as for instance when the traffic cop reported the arrest of Professor Howe for bicycle racing with Professor Root and for failure to use dimmers on his head. When surprise was expressed at Sybil's vocation of missionary she explained she had never intended to be one, but it was all due to the influence of Miss Soper. She also told of her renewal of acquaintance with Miss Knepper in Honolulu with interesting details of the meeting.

The speaker of the evening was then introduced by Principal Moyse who spoke of the indebtedness of the west to the east and of the good fortune which had enabled the school to secure for its speaker, Dr. Powell, of Colgate University, New York.

The doctor who has a disarming charm of manner which forestalls any criticism and gives him a very gracious personality, was pleased to be pleasantly complimentary to Southern California and its schools tempered with a little gentle joshing on the big stories told by Californians in the east which can never be shown because they always prove true before they can be run down and shown up.

His theme was: "The New Age and Its Opportunities." Admitting that there is no new thing under the sun and that every age is the product of the ages that have gone before, he still felt it could be legitimately called a new age because about the time the young people in the class before him were entering upon their high school course a shot was fired which was heard around the world and which drew the peoples of all the

DEAR MAGGIE:—
 Just a few lines to let you know we are all fully recovered again from our sick spell. We were made April fools of just a year ago. A strange man came around and said he would give us a very valuable premium if we would promise to buy his coffee, which he said was the very best. Well, do you know, it was awful stuff; went thick and muddy in the cup. I believe if we had kept on drinking the stuff much longer we would all have been in the Happy Hunting Grounds or Davy Jones' Locker, so Doctor says. Now we have gone back to Booth's Better Blend Coffee and are happy once more.
 Come and see us soon. Love world into a conflict which has completely upset world programs.

Under the opportunities of the new age he first mentioned the opportunity to go into the world and secure a living and something besides, with a minimum of effort. Also there may be young people who by appropriating what their fathers and grandfathers have accumulated may have an easy time in the world and give little in return for what they have received, but, said he: "The man or woman who goes through life living on the earnings of others and giving nothing in return, is a parasite on human society."

Another opportunity mentioned was the chance "to find some work in which you may engage which will be worth while to yourself and to your fellowmen. The big opportunity before our young people is the opportunity to become a producer in this world, not necessarily a farmer. A man or woman who writes a book that brings comfort and inspiration to other people is a producer and not simply a consumer, or the man who occupies the position Professor Moyse has occupied in helping to build up a school system, is a producer. There are thousands of opportunities to do something worth while and the best work is done by those who work for the love of the work and for the good to humanity.

"There is another kind of opportunity, too. In these days every person has an opportunity to become a wild-eyed agitator. I have listened to some of those street corner agitators in New York and other cities and have felt that if the things those men were agitating were to be put into practice, in six months they would wreck human society. They talk simply for the sake of hearing themselves talk. There is a place for the agitator, and I am not condemning agitation in any wholesale fashion, but now when everything is in a state of flux and men and women are running to and fro seeking a solution of new problems, is the dangerous opportunity for some crank to put in his oar.

"There is an opportunity in this new age for young people to help human society to move in the direction in which it ought to go. In that connection he read from an article written by Mayor Hanson of Seattle, paying a high tribute to his service to his city and country. In that connection he said: 'Study the conditions which are before you and help right them.'"

The big opportunity pointed out by Dr. Powell was the opportunity to become a leader in a democratic age. "What do we mean by a democratic age?" he said. He answered the question by saying: "It is the age of the people. By democracy we mean the right of every individual in human society to have something to say about the world in which he lives and the government under which he lives. There are people who think that when democracy has really come into the world, all society will be reduced to a dead level. But I tell you that will never come to pass. No two trees in the forest are just alike, no two blades of grass the same length. God has not made the world in that way.

Then he asked what the schools were doing to train the men and women of the future for these opportunities which await them and found a most satisfactory answer. In closing he dwelt upon the qualifications of leadership which he said demanded first that the leader be a seer able to look beneath the surface of things as Mayor Hanson had been able to do, and as Lincoln had been able to do. He expressed the hope that the young people going out to peaceful careers in civic life would show the same heroic qualities, the same patience and steadfastness that had been exhibited by the soldiers who delighted to honor, many of whom had laid down their lives for their country.

Professor Moyse at the conclusion of the address explained the difficulties under which the class had worked in its concluding half year owing to the closing of school and the correspondence work in which some of the class had not been able to make good and had therefore been prevented from graduating at this class. The correspondence work, he declared, had been a revelation of unsuspected capacity on the part of some students. It had been a test which had made the school authorities sure that the young people thus graduating would make good in the world as they had in school.

addressed to our old numbers, or old addresses if we have moved, it is up to us to notify the publishers or senders of the change. Let us do this, and thus save a lot of clerical work which, quite likely, is a part of the underlying cause of our difficulties here.

If some of those who were mentioned feel that they have been here so many years that the postoffice people should know them and, their whereabouts, would realize that the office personnel changes quite frequently, they would co-operate more willingly. These people are deserving of the censure given them at our meeting. WE MUST CO-OPERATE WITH THE POSTOFFICE TO GET THE BEST SERVICE.

In regard to the admitted difficulty with short funds and delayed cashing of money orders, I confess that I am altogether sympathetic with the postoffice when they tell of the large number of W. S. S. they are called on to redeem, and regarding which they can have no advance information in order to be prepared to have sufficient funds. The obvious thing is to quit turning in the W. S. S., not merely because it is the patriotic thing to do, but because in so doing we may be making it hard for the postoffice to keep money enough to care for legitimate demands.

I believe that we will be pleased with the changes which will result from this effort on our part. It is asking little to help out if it is in our power, and this letter is sent to you for publication in the hope that it may reach many and strike a responsive chord.

Cordially yours,

HENRY R. HARROWER,
Chairman, Committee on Postoffice Service, Greater Glendale Development Association.

REV. GOETZ AFTER INFORMATION

February 28, 1919.

Mr. Cowan,
Editor Glendale News.

Dear Sir:—

During the hours of 4:30 to 6:30 the Pacific Electric cars from Los Angeles are crowded to such an extent that many people must stand.—now can you tell me why the majority of the people standing are women while the seats are occupied by healthy members of the male sex and even young boys from 12 to 16 will occupy a seat next to their parents while some one else's mother with gray hair and declining years is standing in the aisle after a hard day's tussle in the crowds.

If you can explain this christian phenomena would be glad to hear from you.

Respectfully,
REV. A. WILLIAM GOETZ.
